

GIE Media, the parent company of Lawn & Landscape and Golf Course Industry, is the leading media company serving the lawn and landscape, golf course, nursery, greenhouse and garden center markets. As part of our commitment to a healthy future for our industry, we have established a fund to support academic scholarships for outstanding college students with the potential to be leaders in the lawncare/horticulture and golf course maintenance businesses.

Two $2,500 scholarship awards are available:

The Richard Foster Award: This scholarship is available to outstanding students planning careers in the landscape, lawncare or horticulture business.

The Stanley Zontek Award: This scholarship is available for outstanding students planning careers in the golf course maintenance business.

Eligibility criteria:

To be eligible for an academic scholarship or an internship program, you must be enrolled at a recognized two-or four-year college or university working toward a degree in horticulture, turfgrass management, agronomy, environmental science or other field related to a segment of the green industry.

Requirements:

Your application must include:

- Your most recent academic transcript or student advisory tracking report
- At least two letters of recommendation from a college professor, employer/mentor, councilor, adviser or clergy
- A resume outlining your relevant activities, internships and work experience
- 1,000-word essay describing your personal and professional goals, with examples of your leadership of fellow students, coworkers or others in your community
- Applicants for the Zontek award should use the essay to describe Stan Zontek's accomplishments and why they can help inspire leadership in the golf/turf industry.

Application Date:

Applications must be postmarked by April 15, 2013.
